

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR/CORPORATIONS:

In accordance with the General Laws of the State of Rhode Island, section 5-6; the Department of Labor and Training will issue a Corporate Certificate to a corporation which qualifies itself by the following:

- 1) the applicant is required to be a licensed electrical contractor, having passed an examination, of the equivalent, with the Division of Professional Regulation/Board of Examiners of Electricians.
- 2) the licensed electrical contractor/Class A (applicant) must be an officer of the corporation.
- 3) the applicant must supply the Professional Regulation unit with verification, from the Office of the Secretary of State, that this corporation is properly registered/certified with the State of Rhode Island.

If it is your intention to obtain a corporate certificate, please complete the information stated below and return the same to this division along with the previously listed verification and the payment of $100.00.

The renewal fee for the electrical contractor's license and the electrical firm or corporate certificate shall become due and payable, annually, on the birthmonth of the holder of the electrical contractor's license.
